- three facebook events (negative) o but there's no way around this Events
- some people didn't know what events were before they happened o fixable: event primers / make posts explaining events leading up to camp Organisation
- some kind of badges for subcom members would be helpful Menu
- There was a lot of pressure put on our head chef o We can resolve this by having people responsible for specific meals, and by having a simple recipe guide for our meals.
- Better expectations regarding portions o Some food went very quickly, and that was due to some attendees taking generous first serves. o We should set better guidelines about how much food to grab on your first run through, and when it is acceptable to go up for seconds. General/Misc
